

Writing to your MP

If you can compose an original letter to your MP or adapt the BAA letter you may get more results.

BAA have written to the Health Minister and the Prime Minister, this issue is urgent in England at the moment but we will also be raising the issue in Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland in a slightly different letter.

There are some tips in this document on writing to MPs if you want to write your own letter.

The map appears and the MSPs are on the right. Choose the one you want to reveal their contact details by clicking more info:
