

BAPA Conference Programme – Friday 28th January 2022
Zoom Event

09:00-09:30                    BAPA AGM

Morning Plenary Session                    Chair: TBA

09:40-10:20                    Genetic Counselling in the Context of Gene Panel Testing
Rachel Belk, Genetic Counsellor, The Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust

10:30-11:10                    Advancing Technologies in Cochlear Implantation and More Difficult Clinical Case Studies
Katherine Wilson, Lead Clinical Scientist and Paediatric Clinical Coordinator, Paediatric Hearing Implant Centre, St. Thomas's Hospital, London

11:10-11:30                    Break

11:30-12:10                    Audiovestibular Complications after Head Injuries in Children
Professor Soumit Dasgupta, Consultant Audiovestibular Physician, Alder Hey Children's NHS Foundation Trust

12:20-13:00                    The Regional BAPA Peer Networks, recent developments
Dr Tracey Davis, Consultant Paediatrician, Northampton General Hospital NHS Trust

13:00-14:00                    Lunch

Afternoon Plenary Session                    Chair: TBA

14:00-14:40                    The Pharmacogenetics to Avoid Loss of Hearing (PALOH) Trial: Rapid Genotyping To Inform Antibiotic Therapy in Neonatal Infection
Dr John McDermott, Genetics SpR & Honorary Clinical Lecturer, Manchester Centre for Genomic Medicine

14:40-15:00                    Break

15:00-16:30                    Prize and Audit Presentations, to include:
Recently Approved SPIN Training Module, Audiovestibular Medicine
Dr Tracey Davis, Consultant Paediatrician, Northampton General Hospital NHS Trust
(Others to be announced)

16:30                            Close of meeting