Co-Production Collective

Hearing checks for children and young people

This Easy Read information will tell you about:

▶ A meeting we are having.

▶ Who the meeting is for.

▶ How you can take part.

About the meeting

The NHS wants all children and young people to be able to have a hearing check.

This includes children and young people who are autistic and/or have a learning disability.

The NHS are working together with Co-Production Collective to look at how children and young people can be supported to have their hearing checked.

We are having a meeting to talk about the best ways to do this.

We want different people to take part in the meeting and tell us what they think.

Who the meeting is for

We want different people to be able to share their views at the meeting.

The meeting is for:

- Children and young people who are autistic and/or have a learning disability.

- Parents and carers.

- School staff, like teachers and assistants.

- Healthcare staff, like doctors, nurses and therapists.

How to take part in the meeting

For more information about coming to the meeting you can email Chloe.

Chloe's email address is:
